

B OOTHVILLE E MMANUEL & R ECTORY FARM T IMES

Dear Friends,

I'm so pleased to be writing this month's front page. It doesn't seem possible that I have now been with Emmanuel for 10 years, but here we are!!

You might think that Emmanuel should have got rid of me by now, or maybe that I should have found a way to escape by now – not so! When my appointment was reviewed last year, and I really expected to be moving on, I was deeply humbled to be so positively affirmed by everyone in the churches and the community, and invited to stay on. So, I am with Emmanuel and the Methodist Circuit until the summer of 2021 and very happy for us to be going forward together.

As most of you know by now, I started the year quite unwell. I am particularly grateful to Haydon for his friendship and support, for his making it possible and giving me the encouragement to take my time and rebuild slowly and gently. I thank all of you for having covered in different ways, and especially for all your prayers which have made such a difference.

It has been a difficult few months, particularly after Christmas when the depression was worst – at that point there was “only one set of footprints in the sand” (God just carried me through). As I improved, with the help of the medication, God's goodness continued and he gave several messages of encouragement. I felt that God was saying that the counsellor whom I'd found would help me a lot. I recognised that I needed to refocus, that in trying to help with “everything that needed doing”, I had not been able to give sufficient time or energy to the calling for which I was ordained and drifted as a result. As I began returning to work part-time I needed to honour God's calling to “Word and Sacrament”, making that my first priority – which those around me affirmed and we did.

I am well on the way to full recovery; however, things won't be quite the same as they used to be...

As I grew stronger I began to think what other aspects of work I would return to. As I was talking about it with a friend, and fellow minister, she said ‘Why don't you just put more time into worship and teaching’. “Yes but what about everything else that needs doing?” I thought. A few days later, we met for a progress review and Haydon suggested that I should be making worship and teaching my main focus – we hadn't spoken about the other conversation. As I prayed and thought through what would be quite a different role, I could see that God was indeed guiding in this way.

I have gifts in creative arts that haven't seen much use in recent years – it was great a few weeks ago at Emmanuel Café Church to give people a tin pie tray and some paint and see the wonder such a simple thing evoked. People took prints of the patterns and every single one was different. One visiting young woman came back for more paint several times. The banner from our Holy Spirit Renewal day – the sunset one - became so much more than first expected as everyone from our communities added their hand print – even a couple of the caretakers at Rectory Farm. We need to do more drama too. It is amazing the added dimension that engaging people's creativity brings to our worship.

There is one further development I do need to tell you about before I sign off for this month. In the Methodist system it is usual for a minister to give a year's notice of moving on, but sometimes things happen and then we have to move more quickly. The Northampton Circuit knew we had one minister moving on this summer – Tina, the Superintendent. Rev Francis M'Itiirihas just arrived from Kenya with his family as a new member of the team.

What we weren't expecting was for one of the other two ministers to announce he needed to retire earlier than planned with much less notice. No suitable candidate has been found leaving the Circuit a minister short. Emmanuel Group is currently blessed with a strong team of lay readers & preachers and so I suggested that we might afford to release one of my Sundays each month to help support them with communions. Before long the conversation had grown in an unexpected way, and the suggestion from others was that I could focus on worship & teaching for Emmanuel and the Circuit and not return to “everything else that needs doing”... (which incidentally has been being done very capably without me for some months anyway!). It took some hard praying and adjusting to recognise that this was the right way forward – I dearly love being at Emmanuel and being here a bit less wasn't what I had been expecting.

After considerable discussion with the Circuit, the Methodist District and the Emmanuel Group Council everyone has positively agreed that for the next three years I will work 50:50, half time for Emmanuel and half time for the Circuit. I will be at the Emmanuel Churches 2 or 3 Sundays and at the Methodist Churches 2 Sundays each month. Similarly 50:50 during the week. I will work mostly with the Circuit's village churches. We will also seek to involve other Methodist and Baptist preachers more at Emmanuel.

Things have changed so much in the last nine months – there is so much more I could tell you about too. It isn't what any of us envisaged when I was invited to stay on. I don't believe God wanted me to suffer depression as such, but illness happens, and I do believe that God has been true to His promise and worked so much good out of the situation, better than if we'd been left to our own devices.

Psalm 32 has been special to me, here's verse 8:

The LORD says, “I will guide you along the best pathway for your life. I will advise you and watch over you.

I look forward to all that God has for us in the coming months, so much more than we could ask or imagine possible!

Phil

NewWine
Local churches changing nations

Emmanuel are planning a trip to New Wine: United in the summer of 2019 and we would love for as many of the church family to join us as possible!

New Wine: United is a week's long camping, fellowship, worship and teachings/seminars with children's groups each morning. We are blessed that the festival is moving from Shepton Mallet to Peterborough next year at the East of England Showground and we are looking at forming a group of us to go on Week Two of the event which is:

4-10 August 2019.

There is currently a Flash Sale on for tickets until September 3 so if anyone would like to book early you can do at <https://united.new-wine.org/pricing> and you can find all of the information about the event at the main website: <https://united.new-wine.org/>

Boothville Community choir

Once again the Choir gave a splendid concert at the Boothville Community Centre. The theme this time was 'Water' and the chosen charity 'Sailability'. Here is another Picture, taken by Geoffrey, of the latest addition to the choir, Richard Tighe who is shown here singing a solo. The audience enjoyed an evening of song and laughter. The proceeds from ticket sales, a raffle and generous donations from the audience raised the handsome sum of £ 576 for 'Sailability' a charity which helps to make sailing accessible to all.

Rita Austin with her daughter

It was lovely to see Rita Austin when she visited the Church the other Sunday . Rita had been brought by her daughter, Julie Coles, who was visiting from Adelaide, Australia. Geoffrey managed to take this great photo as they arrived at the same time as Haydon and John. Rita was a dedicated member of Boothville Community Church for many years. She now resides at Bethany Homestead. It was so good to see her.

'The Leys' Residential Home

This was a picture I took when several of us attended and helped at the Fete at the 'The Leys Residential Home'. Here are our contacts, Leon and Linda, who are responsible for entertaining, publicity and fund raising on behalf of the Home. It was good to see the reaction of the clients to the visitors of all ages. Even George managed to dress up smart and wear a smile. The Fete managed to raise over £400.

One of today's leading worship songwriters, Stuart Townend will be coming to United Reformed Church Wellingborough on September 18th 2018 as part of his 'The Courage Tour'.

It will be an uplifting concert exploring the significance of COURAGE in all the trials of life, including issues of mental and spiritual health, through chat, worship and song.

It is a great opportunity to hear Stuart and his band play some of his songs that have become classics, like In Christ alone and How deep the Father's love, alongside new tracks from his soon to be released CD, Courage.

Tickets can be purchased via the URC's website or by phoning 01933 278137.

One minute prayers

I have just started reading a wonderful book called 'One minute Prayers'. Harvest House Publishing (2004) Below is one of the prayers.

The LORD will fulfil (his purpose) for me; your love, O LORD, endures forever – do not abandon the works of your hands. Psalm 138:8

Don't stop now Lord. I am finally catching Your vision for my life. It has taken me a while, and I had to walk through a lot of mistakes, but I am here and ready to receive Your purpose. What would You have me do next? Your patience over the years has shown me that You will not abandon the work You have begun. Lead me to the next step.

When I listen to others or even my own negative thoughts, I am tempted to quit trying. Your love inspires me to keep going. And each time I move forward, my step is more steady. I am certain You will follow through. And I will follow Your example. So what's next?

Come to The Cathedral

On September 29th it would be great if you (yes, you) would join us at Peterborough Cathedral as we celebrate lay ministry (those who serve in Churches in licensed roles from the Church of England but are not ordained).

Our Group of Churches is served wonderfully by so many of these people already, including those such as Kris Hatherly who are not from the Church of England. In September we will particularly be celebrating the re-licensing of:

David Bell (Lay Reader)

Nick Bewley-Tipler (Lay Reader)

James Fearnley (Lay Reader)

Keith Holland-Delamere (Licensed Evangelist)

Angie Kennedy (Licensed Evangelist)

Maureen Luke (Lay Reader with License with Pastoral Responsibility for Boothville)

All of these wonderful folks will be renewing their licenses on the day. They will be joined by 3 new lay ministry team members:

Peter Angus (Lay Reader)

Sheila Angus (Licensed Pastoral Minister)

Ken Clark (Licensed Lay Minister)

Of course, just because we have so many licensed lay ministers doesn't mean there's no room for more of you to join in the fun. Paul Foster, for instance, begins his training as a Licensed Pastoral Minister this month.

For those of you who are blessed to not consider yourselves Anglican, do consider whether God might be inviting you to explore lay ministry too. There are lots of opportunities for service both during the week and in services on Sunday. God may be calling you, you never know. If you are interested in exploring this, do talk to one of the guys already licensed or to Haydon, Phil or Doug.

But anyway, to the point:

the service is at 2.30 in Peterborough Cathedral. It would be great if you could join us. Do pray for all of our lay ministers and those in training, thanking God for their gifts, that they offer themselves to serve the Church and the community and asking for abounding opportunities to share His love.

SEPT 2018

FISH - Food (and Fun) In School Holidays!

Wow, what a summer that was!!!! At the time of writing (9th August), we have served about 450 adults and children over the three weeks we have done so far. Even the unexpected quick move from Blackthorn Academy to Rectory Farm community centre didn't stop people coming.

Word is getting round about the hidden needs of the area we are serving. In particular the hunger issues our families face. In July, we were interviewed by the Chronicle & Echo and Look East. This gave us the opportunity to highlight the needs we can see, and get the message out to others.

My HUGE, HUGE HUGE, HUGE thanks, to all those who came to help at some point over the summer holidays. I'm sure you will have been as blessed as me, knowing we are helping tackle such an important issue.

LITTER PICK

Another massive thank you goes to all those who turned up on the day and helped pick up an amazing amount of litter. It was a really hot morning but we managed to fill over 20 bags of rubbish!

We will be doing another litter pick in the Autumn so keep your gloves and wellies at the ready and watch this space...

Thank you for everything that has been happening over the summer and look forward to a great Autumn.

Board game cafe,

if you have some complete board games you don't use anymore, would you consider donating them to the board game cafe.

I'm on the lookout for games to play e.g. monopoly, cluedo, snakes & ladders, dominoes, chess, draughts, scrabble... the list is endless...

Please let me know if you have any to donate.

Or if you have a game that you want to bring along and play, let me know that you are interested.

Particularly if it's one of these modern games.

Drop-in @ Brookside Centre

It is happening and starting in September.
Every Thursday between 9 & 12
we will be hosting a drop-in,
called 'Coffee, Cake and Chat'

The centre only opens four days a week, so with us filling the fifth day, it will give the local residents more opportunities to receive support from a drop-in.

I will be there every week, but it would be great if we could build a team to serve the Lings and Lumbertubs estates. Let me know if you can help in any way, or pop in for a coffee!

Photography competition

By the time you read this the competition will be over. I will reveal the winners to you in October and show you some of the winning entries. Thanks to all who entered. If you didn't win perhaps you will try again next year.

Paul

We have some exciting news to share about Messy Church.

A couple of weeks ago we met to review what has been happening at Messy over the last four years and how we might develop in the future. We had a really good, open and honest meeting. It was one of those rare occasions when we really felt we were being guided rather than putting forward our own thoughts. So what is the exciting news? For a number of different reasons we have decided to stop running Messy in it's current format.

However, this is the really exciting news; we are to carry on doing Messy 'Specials' in the shopping centre, along with Storehouse Church, Sacred Heart Church and The Salvation Army.

There will be four of these a year. Christmas, Easter, Harvest and a Summer extravaganza.

Our first one of these is Harvest on Saturday morning, 6th October, when we will have the old Toys R Us shop in Weston Favell Centre, celebrating God's creation. Please let me know if you would like to be involved in any way. I also want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has put so much time into Messy and for everything they have done during the four years it has been running and for the number of people who have heard the good news, even if it was just once. We pray that the memory will be one to hold.

We would love to be able to something in schools in a similar messy way. Please pray for new opportunities to open up to us. Possibly an after school mini messy (better name to come), or.. at the other end of the age spectrum, Messy Vintage.

Once again, I really do give thanks for all the time and support people have given Messy Church over the years. For the adventure, it has been - and for the new adventure it is going to be..

EMMANUEL *** BOOTHVILLE *** RECTORY FARM

Life in the Emmanuel Group continues to be very busy. For the last ten weeks all three churches have been following "Spirit Filled Church" This culminated in a Holy Spirit Renewal Day on Sat 23rd June. 24 people from the three congregations joined together on our "Away Day" in Moulton Parish Church rooms. We were blessed with teaching from Gordon Dey, author of Jesus Shaped People (JSP).

We had three sessions of teaching time, and plenty of time for chat and fellowship in between, with a lunch break opportunity to share with other members of our group who we don't meet regularly. Children's work and activity had been planned. With only one child, Phil & Tracy had a lot of work to do!

The teaching sessions were:

The Promise of the Holy Spirit – John 14:15-20

The Work of the Holy Spirit – John 16

Receiving the Holy Spirit – John 20:19-22

At the end of the afternoon the children's team bought a large piece of artwork (see picture below) for us all to share in getting messy by hand stamping, they then joined in the worship. There was also a time for reflection and prayer ministry. The artwork is going to continue it's journey round the three congregations', so that all who would like to be added, as representatives of our church family. Hopefully this will then be displayed in the Emmanuel building.

We are hoping to plan another "Away Day" next year, as we all shared experiences of God's blessing being received when out of our normal church setting.

Meriel Mears

Forty robbers arrived at the famous Pearly Gates and they were met by St Peter. After a brief exchange, St Peter went into the gatehouse and contacted God. He said, "I've got 40 robbers here; can I let them all in?" God answered: "I'm afraid we're over the quota on robbers, so tell them to choose between them which are the 12 most worthy, and I will let just those in." Two minutes later St Peter spoke to God again and said, "They've gone," God said, "What?" All 40 of them?" An anxious St Peter replied, "No, the gates!"

An elderly couple were in bed one night discussing the vows they made at their church wedding 60 years before. The husband had started nodding off when his wife asked, "Do you remember how we used to hug in those early days?" The husband replied, "Of course I do" and he gave her a big hug. He was almost asleep when she said, "And do you remember how we used to kiss?" He replied sleepily, "Yes dear, I remember it well," whereupon he gave her a big kiss. After a short pause his wife said, "Do you remember, how you used to nibble my ear?" The old man threw off the covers and started to climb out of bed. His wife, rather concerned, asked him where he was going. In a slightly exasperated tone he said, "I'm going to get my teeth."
